UPDATE TO MEMBERS ON “DOCTOR EATS SCRAP”

The attention of the National Executive Committee of the GMA has been drawn to media report on the plight of one of our members with the above caption.

The National Executive Committee wishes to inform the general membership that leadership of the Association has been in contact with our colleague and had been rendering the needed support in his best interest.

The leadership has had discussions with his employers and the regulator and is providing the necessary assistance. We have also facilitated his transportation and associated costs to enable him have meetings with these organizations as well as helping with his upkeep.

Leadership wish to use this opportunity to remind all members of the fitness to practice document from the Medical and Dental Council and encourage members to appraise themselves with same. Members are further encouraged to assist colleagues who may need help by triggering the necessary clauses in the document.

The NEC wish to inform the entire membership that we remain committed to ensuring the welfare of all members.

Signed

Dr. Titus Beyuo
Deputy General Secretary
